The law provides that if you are to be charged with a criminal offense or if the Department seeks separation, you are to be advised in writing of the specific illegal or improper acts alleged against or attributed to you.

Furthermore, Department policy provides that you have a right to be advised in writing of the names of complainants and allegations against you prior to any questioning of you concerning the allegation regardless of the nature of the allegation and even if the allegation is such that it will not result in the filing of criminal charges or the filing of separation charges.

Accordingly, you are advised that the following allegations have been made against you:

COMPLAINANT(S)

1. [REDACTED] # 1271, RDTU
2. [REDACTED]
3. [REDACTED]
4. [REDACTED]

It is alleged that on 14 December 2011 at appx. 1345 hours, at [REDACTED] the accused [REDACTED] # 1245, Unit 136, failed to report to the Random Drug Testing Unit and submit a urine specimen and breath alcohol test in violation of Department orders.

"As part of the Department's administrative investigation you are required to provide a urine specimen which will be analyzed for the presence of drugs. Failure to comply with the drug screening process will result in a recommendation that you will be separated from the Chicago Police Department."

I hereby acknowledge receipt in writing of the charges or allegations against me.
